PRESS AND TRIBUNE.

THURSDAY MORNING, AUGUST 13, 1858

Republican Nominations.

For State Treasurer,
JAMES MILLER.
For Superintendent of Public Instruction,
NEWTON BATEMAN.

For Congress, 3d District,
JOHN F. FARNSWORTH.

Campaign Press and Tribune.

If the real principles of Stephen A. Douglas were correctly understood by the people of Illinois, he would stand no earthly chance of re-election to the Senate. Let it be known among the masses that he has abandoned his long cherished hobby of popular sovereignty, or the right of the people of the Territories to govern themselves, and that he has substituted in its stead the Dred Scott doctrine, that the people have no right to prohibit slavery in the Territories; that the accursed system is carried into them by virtue of the Constitution, and the spell which has so long bound thousands of honest Democrats to the fortunes of this desperate man would be forever broken, and they would cast him off with becoming scorn. Every right-minded man should do something to enlighten his deluded neighbors on this important matter.

If a man reads the PRESS AND TRIBUNE for three months, we will guarantee that he votes intelligently, at least, and that he will not be imposed upon by the popular sovereignty swindle. It he sins, it will be with his eyes wide open, and he will never be able to plead ignorance for having cast a vote in support of Dred Scottism. Anxious to do our share toward this end, we will mail the WEEKLY PRESS AND TRIBUNE from now until the 10th day of November—a week after the election—at the following rates:

Three copies for	$1.00
Twelve copies to one address	3.00
Twenty-five copies "	5.00
Fifty copies "	10.00

☞ If the names are required to be written, five cents more must be charged on each to defray clerk hire.

The Tri-Weekly will be sent the same length of time for $1.

We call on every Republican who desires the triumph of his principles, to lend a helping hand if in earnest, he will find but little difficulty in procuring some names for the Campaign PRESS AND TRIBUNE.

A Test of Democratic Professions.

The common excuse and justification of the Northern Democracy, when arraigned for their offences against Freedom, is this: "We " are as much opposed to Slavery as you are, " and as much in favor of Free Territory as " you are. We differ with you about the " manner in which certain results may be se- " cured; but do not differ with you as to " what those results shall be. We think our " course is preferable, and that by pursuing " it steadily and persistently, we shall ac- " complish all that is attainable, under the " Constitution; while you, with your fanati- " cism and agitation, will only tighten the " shackles of the slave, and condemn other " land now free to the curse of bondage!" Pick up any modern Democrat on the street, and if he is intelligent enough to give a reason for his adhesion to the party, he will state it substantially as we have done. But let us point out by a single example the hollowness, falsity and meanness of these Democratic pretensions.

A large and important section of the Democratic party in Missouri, convinced of the unprofitableness and waste of Slavery, and its damaging effect upon the settlement, growth and prosperity of their State, have been engaged in a quiet, peaceable and legal movement for the removal of the incubus which has made Missouri so inferior to Illinois. They have based their efforts solely on the ground of self-interest. The injustice of the slave system to the black man, and its terribly disastrous effects upon the morals, manners and habits of the white race, have not appeared in the discussion. Emancipation was not even proposed. Deportation of the negroes was the plan, and all its opponents were assured that by its operation they would lose no part of the value of their slave property, while they would double or quadruple the value of their real estate, by the introduction of free white labor to fill the void occasioned by the removal of the blacks to more southern localities. It was a movement by white men, in behalf of white men—based, it is true, upon low but still justifiable motives, but without a taint of the "Abolitionism" and "fanaticism" with which Republicans are charged. Its leaders were Democrats of unimpeachable political fidelity, going heartily with the party in all its measures—the extension of Slavery alone excepted. In express terms they proposed to confine their efforts to their own State—to let the white men of Missouri legislate for white men, without dictation from the South or advice from the North.

Here now was a chance for the Northern Democrats, who profess zeal in behalf of Free Soil, to have made their professions good. Consistency demanded that they should support the work that was, in Missouri, so happily begun, and that they should lend it, as far as possible, their sympathy and aid. But, among the revilers of these Missouri Free Soilers, none have been so bitter as those Northern Democrats who have been constant in their asseverations that they are Free Soilers themselves. Their taunts and invalids have surpassed any displays of malignity coming from the South; and now that the movement is temporarily arrested, and the men who upheld it beaten down, their joy knows no bounds. Mr. DOUGLAS stops in the middle of one of his humbugging harangues to announce the welcome fact that the party in Missouri, avowedly pro-slavery in its history and policy, has achieved what he termed a "glorious triumph." His organs throughout the State ring with notes of exultation, and everywhere in the assemblages of the Douglas men, are heard congratulations and rejoicings over BLAIR'S defeat. They do not dispute the purity of his Democracy. On all questions that once divided the parties, he is a Democrat of the radical stamp; but he is in favor of Freedom in Missouri—in favor of opening that State to white emigration—of pursuing the policy most conducive to the interests of white men—and that is enough. The defeat of all such is welcomed as a Democratic victory. We do not wonder at the rejoicings; but are astonished that the masses of the people, with such proofs before them of the complicity of the Democracy in every movement for the extension and perpetuation of human bondage, can be deceived by Democratic professions. In these days, "Democracy" means Slavery extension, and nothing else.

Kansas City for Free Soil.

Col. Lykins of Kansas City ran as an independent candidate for the Legislature in Jackson Co., Mo. He is an Emancipationist in principle, and openly Anti-Lecompton and Anti-Border Ruffian. He received 580 votes in Kansas City against 360 given for his Pro-Slavery competitor. Kansas City has become strongly free soil.

☞ It is reported that Secretary Thompson's contract to Disunion Europe are overflown by water, and that the damage approximates $100,000.

Steam-Navigation on the Erie Canal a Probable Success.

The experimental trip of the steam-canal-boat P. L. Sternberg, from Rochester to Buffalo, with Gov. King and the Canal Commissioners as witnesses, seems to have settled the question of the practicability of substituting steam for horse-power in canal navigation. The progress from Rochester to Buffalo was a series of triumphs and congratulations, and on the arrival of the boat at the latter point the demonstration was such as has had no parallel since the first boat passed westward through the Erie Canal something more than thirty years ago. The enthusiasm at the successful result of the experiment took the lead of that which was elicited by the simultaneous celebration of the success of the Atlantic Telegraph. The Commercial even goes so far as to say that the former event will be of greater material advantage to Buffalo than the latter.

We are inclined to believe that our cotemporary had good reasons for this conclusion. The Governor and the Canal Commissioners were evidently of the same opinion, as was also Horatio Allen, Esq., of the Novelty Works, who witnessed the experiment, and who from his long familiarity with steamboat building, was a well qualified judge. The actual results of the experiment were, that the Sternberg ascended the canal from Rochester to Buffalo, 93 miles, carrying 80 tons, against a current of at least one mile an hour, at a speed of nearly four miles an hour, and raising a wave on the banks not exceeding four inches. These facts, Mr. Ruggles, the new Canal Commissioner, introduced into his speech, and added:

> "Fellow citizens of Buffalo: I have no adequate words in which to expatiate on the consequences of this performance. Suffice it to say, that it raises the canal at once to its highest dignity as an engine of commerce—transmuting it from an unartificial and clumsy contrivance, deriving its efficiency from brute, animal power, to a single piece of harmonious mechanism regulated by science, and acting solely in obedience to human will and human intellect. The lifeless canal barge, floating helplessly about in the harbors of our crowded cities, now becomes a living, self-moving warehouse, capable of taking any position required, without expense or delay; and also exhibiting its superiority for commercial purposes, over the immovable railway depot, accumulating at the termini of the road the masses which it carries."

The previous experimental trip of the steam canal boat from Buffalo to Albany and back was in some respects quite as satisfactory in its results as that of the Sternberg, and the former led to the latter.

What now remains to be done by the people of New York is to complete their canal enlargement as speedily as possible. That done, and we have little doubt that the application of steam to canal boats will prove profitable as well as practicable. Gen. Bruce, one of the speakers at Buffalo, dwelt forcibly on this point, and it is probable that the success of the late experiment will inspire the people at large with a determination to have the enlargement completed at the earliest practicable moment. The greatly increased business of the canal during the present season in consequence of the reduction of tolls on the opening of navigation, furnished a strong argument in favor of an early enlargement, and the additional argument presented by the application of steam as a motive power cannot be long resisted.

The people of the Northwest have an interest in the success of this new enterprise hardly second to that felt by the people of New York. Whatever tends to cheapen the transportation of their products to the seaboard and at the same time to shorten the time required to accomplish the object, not only puts money in their pockets, but simplifies the operations of trade and renders its results more certain. That steam on the Erie Canal would still further cheapen transportation there can be no doubt, and it would also considerably shorten the time between Buffalo and Albany, so that it would supply both the required desiderata. We notice a fling or two at Chicago in the proceedings at Buffalo, but the people of that city will find that we entertain no jealousy of any good fortune that may result to them from steam canal navigation. If they can compete successfully against all other routes to the seaboard, it is manifestly for our interest that they should do so. So hurry up the Erie Canal enlargement and clap on the steam.

Necessity of a New Telegraphic Alphabet.

The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says, that should the Atlantic telegraph prove a success, it will become necessary for brevity, economy and privacy, in dispatches both official and individual, to invent new alphabets or symbols, which will be connected between parties the either side. Plans for official correspondence have been submitted to the government for examination and adoption. The State Department now has a cypher for secret correspondence with agents abroad. But it may be doubted whether any system of this sort will be practicable, if the dispatch is to pass through many stations beyond the termini of the ocean telegraph. Serious mistakes might easily be made by the operators.

Eighth Congressional District—Bob Smith likely to be Thrown Overboard.

[Correspondence of the Press and Tribune.]

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., August 10, 1858.

Politics in this section of the State are now in a most wonderful fix. The two wings of the Democratic party are just now ready to gouge out each other's eyes. Each seeks up its claim to regularity and nationality. With them, this even appears not to constitute their only differences. There are some five or six aspirants for the seat now occupied by Bob Smith in Congress, and the contest threatens to be intensely warm. The aspirants are: J. L. D. Morrison, now on a visit to Europe; P. B. Fouke, the present Prosecuting Attorney for this district; W. H. Underwood, a Senator for the counties of St. Clair and Monroe; W. H. Snyder, present Judge of this judicial district; John Wood, a farmer of Washington County, and Hon. Robert Smith. It will be seen that here is a goodly array of names from which to select. The interests of these men are in direct conflict; hence the probabilities of a rich time ahead.

Saturday last, pursuant to notice, a Convention was held in this city for the purpose of appointing delegates to the District Convention, to be held at Nashville on the 2d of September, to nominate a candidate to succeed Hon. Robert Smith in Congress. At the appointed hour men of different parties to the number of fifty-four assembled in the Court House. Among the lookers-on could be seen a majority of Douglas Democrats, quite a number of Republicans, a sprinkling of K. N's, and a few Buchanan Democrats. The programme which was agreed upon more than a week previous, was initiated at the organization. Fouke, Snyder and Underwood were present, wearing their happiest faces. Your correspondent thought he saw (un-shaved, and kept his eye skinned" to see what action the managers would have. A committee was appointed to draft resolutions "expressive," &c., and to recommend delegates to go to Nashville. The committee having retired, Gen. Fouke was called out to enlighten the meeting; but unfortunately just at that time North's Circus entered the city, headed by the "Calliope." The steam whistle overcame the gas pipe, and the General soon found himself speaking to empty seats, whereupon he seated himself. After the noise and confusion had ceased, the committee returned, and reported a series of resolutions endorsing generally the administration of Buchanan, fully endorsing Douglas, and instructing their delegates to go for Fouke. Just at this stage of the proceeding the face of Underwood "lengthened out a foot." At the conclusion of the reading, Underwood rose to his feet. He coincided, he said, generally with the spirit of the resolutions, but thought that it was not good policy to be instructed. He therefore moved the aforesaid resolution should be struck out. Fouke now took the floor, and proceeded to castigate Underwood in the most approved style. Snyder also made some remarks. The meeting, however, refused to strike out, and the whole were adopted. When the Democracy of Illinois have given but an outline of what the great Nashville Democratic party is doing in Egypt.

Fouke has been before the people, not from any merit he possesses, but from motives of expediency. He has already been defeated two or three times for Congress, and the managers want him out of their way. The nomination of Fouke will effectually lay him on the shelf. They know he has no chance of success. Trumbull and Bissell have both beaten him badly and so will end his career.

The Republicans are united firmly, and in due time will bring out a man who will sweep this district like a prairie fire in November.

Let Northern Illinois only do her duty, and the State is forever redeemed from the hands of the present rotten dynasty. G.

Letter from Springfield.

Correspondence of the Press and Tribune.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., August 10, 1858.

Thanks to Gov. Matteson's well managed St. Louis & Chicago R. R., which is constantly improving and running up to time, I was landed here this morning early, after a pleasant night's ride from Chicago. Notwithstanding the weather, there was no suffering from heat, dust or mosquitoes, at least during last night's ride. But here to-day the weather has been excessively warm. Even this far south the dog-day sun seems to pour his rays from a more nearly vertical position, and the air is heated to almost an unendurable degree. There are an unusually large number of beautiful shade trees lining the streets of this, no less, pleasant city, and I find cool retreats in its spacious hotels and in the "cross halls" of the State House, so that the heat is rendered more bearable. Springfield meets with more favor in my eyes at each visit, from the attention some of its better citizens pay to fruits, flowers and shrubbery. Indeed the so called "Garden City" is scarcely ahead of the Prairie State Capital in this respect. The gardens of Gov. Bissell, Ex-Gov. Matteson, Mr. Ridgely and others are superior for their excellence of culture and taste. The State House Square, a barren waste only four or five years since on my first visit, is now a bright and flowery spot, embracing little but the older fashioned varieties, as four-o'clocks, touch-me-nots, petunias, lilies, and stately sun-flowers. These, with a good start of forest and other ornamental trees, are doing well, protected by an iron fence. In comparison with the Chicago Court House our State Capitol now looks squatty and inferior. As Illinois is able to build a better one, and as Sangamon county needs a larger Court House, it has been suggested that the State House be sold to this county for a Court House, and a Capitol, equal to that of Ohio or Tennessee, be built upon a more elevated site.

Calling on the well known Secretary of the State Agricultural Society, Mr. Simon Fogerty, I found him busily engaged mailing notices of the coming Fair, and attending to correspondence in relation thereto. From a letter just received from Mr. Ingraham, he learns that 2,000 extra beds have been prepared outside the Fair ground, and it is trusted full preparation will be made to accommodate the multitude gathering at Centralia in September.

In addition to Mr. Francis, I have met Mr. Baker of the Journal, Alonzo Dubois, Treasurer Miller, Secretary Hatch, and many other leading Republicans, together with Mr. Lincoln, whom they all delight to honor; and they all speak with one voice of the triumphant prospects of the party or Free Soil and of Right. The old Whigs are rallying under him, whom they know to be a true and tried standard bearer, and the able opponent of Douglas.

Mr. Lincoln leaves to-morrow evening for Beardstown, where he will throw some of the hot shot into the Douglas camp, and charge home upon the doughface. It will be the work of Lincoln to show the people the truth and to paint the delight of it in hell. I never becoming very sanguine that the little one's legs are entirely too short for the extended race he is running, with such heavy, muddy ground.

The Future of Free Soil in Missouri.

The St. Louis Democrat says that forty thousand votes were cast in Missouri this year distinctly in favor of emancipation. It declares that in no locality, and under no pressure of adversity has the Free Soil sentiment receded one single vote in that State. It goes on to say:

> Those who think free soil by any means prostrated under the late elections, are wide indeed of the mark and show little appreciation of the elements of which the two great political movements. The result may act as a tonic, not as a paralysis—the force of plurality triumphs can only vanish the opposition its divided weakness, and its united strength. There is no tie to turn. No zone other can it belong, for they are progress—they are politics hereafter.
> Free soil, as was said in a speech in St. Louis to day the it was a week ago, by thousands of votes. Those who fainted by the wayside, or lingered in rear of the battle, will fight henceforth, encouraged by the doubtful victories of near six thousand, and of the doubters, four out of five are free soil. And even as it stands, it has already a plurality in all hotly contested wards, where fraud has stalked at large through the city, and the President of the United States has associated the national revenue to carry his favorite for Congress! Is it a funeral knell for free soil? No! Brave men do not surrender thus—the six thousand five hundred free soilers of St. Louis, are a victory in themselves. But the seed is there, the tree is growing, the fruit will ripen. There may not be a member elect to the present General Assembly ready to move in the matter of slavery extension, and yet there have been near forty thousand votes cast this year directly in its favor. It requires only unity, bravery, appreciation, to make those forty thousand more spit in twelve months time to eighty thousand. The voters are intrinsically of that cast of thought, and seed only to bring their sentiment culminated. The vital Democracy is the essential protest thought of our people, the radical, fundamental liberalism that must underlie every social reform to, has in pursuit of Right in a shape, with a practice, and under circumstances that admit of no retreat. As well talk of resetting again the daylight, or the spring time, or public intelligence, as the return of popular reaction against free soil in Missouri. Nothing can react against it but slave importation, and that it has not the power to come, from nor wherefore to come. The column of migration that embraces the movement of the white race from east to west, is upon us, and it will bring the path of civilization with the church, the school, the farm, the city, until slavery as a system, shall be known no more in the land. In speaking these things we know what we say. Never was the heart of the free soil party firmer than it is in this conjuncture. Never did its prophetic nerve with surer vision the final triumph of the cause and its rapid recuperation from the very elements of discord that induced defeat. Never were those who have led and those who have been overborne more calmly determined in their struggle or more heroically resolved to hold their positions against all comers. Before this day two years hence free soil men, having developed a consolidating force visible in the halls of our Assembly, and will cave possession of themselves of the entire State Government. Mark the prediction.

A Romantic Mu rage.

Quite a romantic wedding took place at Mazomania in this county, last evening. The groom was a returned Californian, who left his wife for the sacrifices land about seven years ago; and she bride, the wife that was left. Some time after he reached California—a year or more—his wife received intelligence of his death. Two or three years later she heard that the story of his death was untrue, but that he never intended to return. Upon this, with the advice of friends, she obtained a divorce.

Two or three days since, the wanderer returned, and called upon his former wife. Old affections revived, faith was plighted anew, and last evening he led her, a blushing bride to the altar, for the second time. The happy pair, that re pulsed, proceeded forthwith to the depot, and took the evening train east on their bridal tour.—Madison (Wis.) Journal.

Stephen A. Douglas and Henry Clay.

(From the Illinois American.)

Much ado is made by the Register and similar sheets over those unfortunate classes of our citizens known as Old Line Whigs and Americans. What tears are shed over them! What whirlwinds of sighs heave the chests of Democracy over their misfortunes and their terrible situation! They are told by their sympathizers in language of deepest pathos, that they are a much abused people—that they are used by the Republicans as their distinctive property—that they are bought and sold as sheep, and that their only sole retreat is into the fold of Democracy—to pillow their weary heads upon the sympathizing bosom, and to rest peacefully in the fatherly arms of Stephen A. Douglas—that they (the Whigs and Americans) are a free, national people, and are with them in sentiment and policy, and can safely go nowhere else.

All this is very fine, and sounds well in the dark; but bring it to the light and array the parties where they can be seen. Who are these Old Line Whigs that are thus spoken of? They are the followers of Henry Clay. Men who stood by him in his life—strove to elevate and honor him for his purity and patriotism, and for the sentiments of his national policy. Men who, remembering the man in life, revere his memory and his principles now that he is dead. Men who, schooled in a system of national policy and broad principles, have labored to break up corruption and vice; and hence, in the dissolution of their party, knowing the corruption and depth of villainy of Locofocoism, so often exposed by their honored Clay, and loving with suspicious eye upon parties hastily formed, have maintained their individuality and personal integrity, and still are Old Whigs, holding on there to and maintaining the principles of their earlier lives, uncontaminated by modern isms and dogmas.

And who are the Americans, now so much loved by the treasury grabbers? They are the followers of Clay, and they, too, honor his principles and his name.

And now who are these smooth-tongued sympathizers with these Old Line Whigs and Americans—these men that are so fearful that they may become contaminated with the new isms of the day—that, in their sheepish new conditions, they will wander into the woods and be devoured by the wolves? Scan them closely. Are not they the wolves in sheep's clothing, and that sticking but loosely over? Are they not the same that, but a few years ago, when these Old Liners sought to elevate that glorious old patriot, Henry Clay, to the Presidency, characterized him from one end of the Union to the other as a gambler, a pirate, a murderer and a traitor?

And now! Stephen A. Douglas and his minions of the Register charge in that contest that Mr. Clay was a traitor who would and had tried to sell his country to England—that he was a gambler and a murderer! Is the following language is upon file and can be proven. Men are living—Old Line Whigs—who heard these charges from Stephen A. Douglas, on the stump. And is it to be supposed, for a moment, that these Old Line Whigs—these Americans, or their children are now to be cajoled into support of Douglas because he is the last ditch champion, the founder of their party, and the proclaimer and defender of their principles? Never. They have been of late years, somewhat, if they can vote. Men who like them fought against the slanderers of Clay in his life, wept over him when he died, and by a new party, do battle against all who war against his principles. They will still maintain their integrity, and in 1860 the Old Line Whigs and Americans will stand in solid phalanx and challenge the world to pierce their ranks, and a shout extending from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and echoed and re-echoed from the lakes to the Gulf, will proclaim the death of Locofocoism and Democracy in all its kinds.

A Great Work—The Jardin des Plantes of the United States.

A few days since we visited for the first time the estate and private grounds of Henry Shaw, Esq. We doubt whether one in a hundred of the residents of St. Louis have ever visited the work laid out by this gentleman, for the benefit not only of St. Louis—within whose borders it will be—but of the whole United States, and especially that portion west of the Alleghany mountains. Here is a man who, relinquishing, at the age men generally become weaving, all desire for further accumulation of wealth, has studied how best to consecrate the fruits of which he has been the artificer, to the best interest of his fellow-beings.

Already have ten acres been prepared by first thoroughly and deeply trenching it, laying in mud, and intersecting drains, and enclosing the same with a wall that will stand as long as the native rocks. During the time the entrance gateway is being constructed—it is of massive, yet architectural proportions, laid with limestone and perfectly cemented. The joiner work of the plant houses is also going on, and it is designed to have this ten acres, which is to be devoted exclusively to plants and vines, completed this fall. Another year will probably see it filling up with plants arranged with reference to their botanical affinity. From year to year the work is to be pushed forward as rapidly as is consistent with true arrangement, until the fruticetum, pinetum, etc., etc., are complete.

An immense building for the purpose of a museum and for lecture halls is to be erected, and Professors are to be engaged and supported from a fund or revenue accruing from rent of lands outside, and classes of students are to be instructed in all the branches requisite to the full pursuance in practice of any and everything relating to agriculture, horticulture or floriculture.

With all the care, planning and supervision of the prosecution of this great work, Mr. Shaw finds time to see that his grape houses, plant houses, and private gardens, are kept in perfect order and neatness. In his grape arbors we can observe many of the best known sorts of foreign grapes, with large and full branches, having the fruit well filled out, and generally approaching to mature perfectly. There is no doubt but that the foreign grapes will be found entirely hardy when once fully acclimated. As a specimen of this we noticed a vine of the Black Hamburgh, which will be sold at very low rates, and which, we think, Messrs. Mills, Hamilton & Co., will do well to call and examine before purchasing elsewhere.

MORRIS SWELL-MAN'S LAST SCRAPE.—Upon complaint of Alderman Toomey and Reed, Frank Leslie was arrested on Saturday last, and held to answer for certain caricatures in his illustrated paper, which, in the opinion of the Aldermen, were defamatory and libelous, and likely to bring them into public contempt. Mr. Leslie gave bail in the sum of one thousand dollars, and took out a warrant for the charge against him. One of the caricatures of which Aldermen Toomey complains, it is alleged, represents him as a stout Irishman, with a black bottle in one hand and a shillalah in the other, in search of a reporter, whom he intends to throw overboard.—N. Y. Evening Post, 10th.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.—On Sunday evening Mrs. Nolan, with her daughter and child, got on board the cars in the northern part of the city to go to St. L. R. R., intending to go off south of town. They were seated in front, and Mrs. Nolan's feet catching in the ground threw her under the car which run over her, breaking several ribs, cutting one of her ears nearly off, fracturing her skull, breaking the small bones in her ankles, and dislocating both knee-pans. Her life, we understand, is despaired of by the physicians.—State Journal, 9d.

EFFECT OF RELIGIOUS EXCITEMENT.—Mrs. Chad was the wife of George Chadwick, residing a few miles north of Peekskill, N. Y., on Wednesday morning cut off her right arm, between the elbow and wrist. For some time past she had been laboring under excitement from religious topics, and had been heard frequently using the words, "If thy right hand offend thee, cut it off." She is completely disabled, although it is possible she may survive.—Hillsboro Herald.

TWO MEN KILLED BY LIGHTNING.—We learn that two men by the name of Spears, father and son, who resided near Fillmore settlement, in this county, were struck dead by lightning about four o'clock on Monday afternoon. They were standing in the door at the time. Another son, who stood in the opposite door, was knock'ed down, but suffered no injury.—Hillsboro Herald.

Pete Dawson, [who is now mixing mortar at Blackwell's Island, is thus noticed by a reporter of the N. Y. Tribune:

> "He looks rustic enough in his prison garb, with his whiskers shaved off and his hair closely cut. The Warden will not allow him to hold any intercourse with his friends, and is very chary about permitting visitors to catch a glimpse of him, even from a distance."

A BOY STRUCK.—At Rockton, during a recent thunder-shower, a son of Mr. Thompson, a lad ten years of age, was struck by lightning, and fell apparently dead in the road, but was finally restored by the application of cold water.

NEW CURRENCY.—Counterfeit $20s on the Oxford Bank, Maine, are in circulation.

Railway Matters.

INJUNCTION GRANTED.—Last week the trustees of the bondholders of the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad Company, by their solicitor, made application to Judge Harlan, of the Fourth Judicial Circuit, of this State, for an injunction restraining the Sheriff of Marion county from proceeding to sell certain property of the Company, advertised to be sold under an execution. The Judge, after due deliberation, granted the injunction, as prayed for by the trustees.

ECONOMY OF FUEL.—On the Androscoggin Railroad, a short time since, an engine moved an ordinary train, at the usual speed, 118 miles with one cord of wood. The average consumption of wood on the same road has been only one cord to some eighty miles of trains run. The ordinary consumption on otherroads is one cord to from 35 to 40 miles, and on some the average is not 30 miles to the cord.

RAILWAY ACCIDENTS.—The Railroad Journal controverts the statement of the Albany Evening Journal, which has been largely copied into other papers, to the effect that high speed lies at the bottom of the numerously occurring accidents, and in support of its position cites the fact that on English railroads; where the speed of trains is notoriously greater than in this country, accidents are far less frequent. The rate at which trains should be run is a question of economy, not of safety, assuming that the road and machinery are in perfect order, as they always should be.

COST OF CARRYING PASSENGERS.—The Railroad Record, basing its calculations on the actual cost per mile of carrying passengers on some of the principal Ohio railways, concludes, that on a well conditioned road, carrying 300,000 passengers, the cost of carrying a passenger one mile does not exceed one cent. Of course the number and distance carried varies the result.

MOBILE & OHIO R. R.—This road, to extend from Columbus on the Mississippi River to Mobile, is progressing with a fair degree of rapidity. It is expected that trains will run through to Jackson, in Tennessee, in November next, when a line of boats will also commence running between Cairo and Columbus in connection with the road.

Personal and Political.

The next delegation to the House of Representatives from Missouri will stand as follows: J. Richard Barret, Thos. L. Anderson, J. B. Clark, James Craig, Sam. H. Woodson, John S. Phelps and John W. Noell—all Administration Democrats.

—The New York Journal of Commerce revives Mr. Buchanan's pledge of 1856, not to be in the field for 1860, while the Richmond South thinks he might be called upon to accept the nomination. Very likely he could be induced to sacrifice himself for the good of his country.

—It is said that the very first paragraph in Hon. Rufus Choate's oration at Boston, on the 5th ult., contained two hundred and sixty-six words, uttered without pausing for breath. Another sentence consisted of over three hundred words, a twelve inches long in print, and is decorated with two hundred and fifty adjectives. Mr. Choate's wind is so extraordinary that we wonder his friends do not think of putting him on the Presidential course.

—Almost a regiment of supposititious candidates are named for the national sweepstakes of 1860 by the political wiseacres. Among them are Mr. Seward, Col. Fremont, Mr. Everett, Senators Cameron, Crittenden and Bell, Gen. Wool, Howell Cobb, Commodore Stockton, Gen. Joh

DR. MANN'S AGUE BALSAM, UNRIVALLED IN THE HISTORY OF MEDICINE.

WHY? BECAUSE SINCE THE FIRST settlements of the rich prairies and fertile valleys of the West, it has been the great study of all physicians to produce a perfect cure for ague, fever, and all bilious diseases, so common among us, and so generally fatal in their results. The mineral and vegetable kingdoms have heretofore been ransacked in vain except in remedies only partially successful, but this is entirely removed by Dr. Mann's Balsam. Reader, be on your guard, do not so obstinate that Mann's Ague Balsam will not cure, do not hesitate to pay the amount, the remedy has never yet been found that will cure so soon. Read the following:

Oberlin, Ohio, June 1st, 1858. Messrs. S. K. Mann & Co.—Gents: Having had occasion to use some of your Ague Balsam in my family, I find it the most prompt and efficient remedial agent for the positive cure of ague ever used, and as a strengthening tonic I think it has no equal. Yours, &c., SAM'L HENDRY.

Olney, Ill., September 20, 1857. Messrs. S. K. Mann & Co.—Gents: Your Ague Balsam is the only remedy that seems to meet the wants of the people of this locality. We have upon our shelves, all the popular remedies of the day for the cure of intermittents, but Dr. Mann's Balsam sells in preference to all others, from the simple fact that it cures. It is destined to excel all other remedies ever offered. Truly Yours, G. W. HAY, E.

Dr. Mann & Co., Galion, Ohio—Gents: Your Ague Balsam is the people's own remedy, in the report of the cure for cure of ague and fever. We have never known it to fail in any case when properly used. It is looked upon as a perfect antidote to malarious diseases. Very Truly Yours, REED & PETIJOHN. Cairo, Ill., May 15th, 1858.

Seymour, Ind., April 20, 1858. Messrs. S. K. Mann & Co., Galion, Ohio—Gentlemen: I would say for the benefit of all concerned, that I have a little daughter, about six years of age, that has had the chills over three and a half years, and we could do nothing with her till we received your Balsam. We commenced giving it according to directions and are happy to state that she has not had a chill since she commenced taking it. I shall use my exertions in the bounds of my influence to have your Balsam a circulation. Respectfully Yours, N. P. EDWARDS.

Charles' London Cordial Gin.—The Original and only London Gin Imported. This Gin, distilled in London from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the Vegetable Kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent medical men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic drink in use.

In a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of Dyspepsia, Gout, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Gravel, Colic, Cholera, Fever and Ague, Stricture, Diseases of the Urinary Organs, the Kidneys and the Bowels, Nervous Debility, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to settlers in the Southern and Western States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and pints thirty-eight cents, by all Druggists, Grocers, Fruiterers, and Country Merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES', NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.

May be had in Chicago, Ill., of FENTON, ROBINSON & SMITH, No. 15 South Water street; HAVEN, TYRRELL CO., No. 57 South Water street. FORD & BRADLEY, 6 Dearborn street. EDMUND C. CHARLES, Importer, 40 Broadway, New York.

Sawyer's Fluid Extract of Bark, an infallible remedy for the Fever and Ague, and the various forms of Billious Diseases, Intermittent, Remittent, Chill Fever, and Dumb Ague, having their origin in malaria of very fertile and marshy districts, prepared by Dr. S. S. Sawyer, Druggist and Chemist, and sold by Sawyer Paige & Co. No. 16 Lake st., Chicago.

This remedy is prepared entirely from vegetable substances and contains no mercury, arsenic, or anything that can prove injurious to the system. Its effects are those of a deobstruent and tonic, well adapted to restore the healthy action of the Liver and Stomach, whose functions are so generally impaired in this class of diseases.

Quinine and other tonics serve only in many cases to break the chills, but do not remove the diseases of the liver and other organs implicated, on which the chill and fever depend; hence the usefulness of the "Fluid Extract of Bark," (particularly in regions where Physicians can not readily be consulted,) which contains all the qualities suited to the indications of these maladies.

Hundreds of testimonials in regard to the efficacy of the medicine, from persons of respectability, have been given to the proprietor—but he does not make use of them as he prefers to have the medicine introduce itself according to its merits.

A most Valuable Remedy for Headache.—Dr. E. A. Wilson's Tonic Cathartic and Anti-Dyspeptic Pills. Rev. W. G. Howard, Pastor of the 1st Baptist Church, Chicago, in a letter addressed to Messrs. Fahnestock & Davis, dated June 18th, 1858, says:—"During the last twenty years I have made use of a great variety of medicines prescribed by Allopathic and Homoeopathic physicians, but all have failed; and I had relinquished all hopes of relief, until I was induced to resort to WILSON'S PILLS. These have effectually relieved me in repeated instances of late, and I can cheerfully and conscientiously recommend them to others who are similarly affected." This sovereign remedy is sold by all retail Druggists, and by FAHNESTOCK & DAVIS, Western Agents, No. 118 Randolph street.

G. SIMONDS, OHIO CATAWBA BRANDY. THIS BRANDY HAS BEEN MANUFACTURED for several years from the pure juice of the Catawba Grape, thus affording additional evidence of the progress of American enterprise and industry, and of our ability to produce articles at home equal to those made by any other nation.

The Ohio Catawba Brand not only equals but excels the best imported Brandies, in purity and flavor. It is in fact the best Brandy known. This statement is fully corroborated by the certificates of our most distinguished analytical chemists.

The want of pure Brandy has long been felt in this country, and the introduction of an article of such quality as to supersede the sale and use of those vile compounds hitherto sold under the name of Brandy, can only be regarded a great public good. The Catawba Brandy possesses all the good qualities claimed for the best imported liquors, and is of perfect purity and superior flavor, and a sovereign and sure remedy for Dyspepsia, Flatulency, Cramp, Colic, Languor, Low Spirits, General Debility, &c.

CAPTURE OF THE PEIHO FORTS IN CHINA.

Tremendous Shower of Shot and Shells.

Fearful Explosion.

[From the Correspondent of the London Times.] GULF OF PECHELEE, May 19, 1858.

The gunboats went over the bar this afternoon, with paddlebox and ships' boats in tow, full of seamen and marines from the fleet. Their appearance as they entered the mouth of the river was picturesque in the extreme, numbers of little tri-color flags, in which our allies always indulge, waved brightly in the setting sun, while the red coats of the marines formed a gay contrast to the blue jackets of the sailors. The gunboats came on in close order, puffing forth jets of white smoke, as though they were panting beneath the dense masses of human beings with which their decks were crowded. Their aspect was sufficiently imposing to cause no little excitement among the valiant defenders of the batteries on shore. Mandarins on horseback and on foot, followed by parties of men carrying flags, visited the different batteries, apparently giving orders. The men all stood to their guns, and turned out in single line, along the whole length of the steep glacis, so as to make as imposing an array as possible. Any compunction we might have felt in giving the brave garrison a little severe treatment on the morrow was considerably diminished by the insolent message they sent off through Count Putiatin, and which condensed into the expressive slang of the pugilist, amounted simply to a request to us to "come on."

MAY 20.—At 8 o'clock this morning Capt. Hall and the French Flag Captain proceeded on shore with a flag of truce and letters from the ambassadors and admirals, informing Tan that it being necessary for the safety of the former, in the prosecution of their search for a properly qualified commissioner, that the forts at the mouth of the Peiho should temporarily change garrisons, he, the said Tan, was allowed two hours, at the expiration of which delay, if they were not surrendered, they were to be taken.

The order of the day was as follows: The Cormorant, Fusee, and Mitraille to attack the two forts on the north side; the Nimrod, Avalanche and Dragonne to engage the three on the south. Upon the Admirals moving up the river, they were to be followed by the gunboats towing landing parties. Those destined for the attack of the northern forts, towed by the Staunch and the Bustard, to be composed of men from the Pique, the Furious and the surprise, under the command of Capt. Sir Frederick Nicholson, Capt. Sherard Osborn, and Commander Cresswell. The Slaney and the Firm to land their parties, composed of men of the Calcutta Fury, under the command of Capt. Hall and Commander Leckie, for the attack on the southern forts. The Leven and Opossum were told off to tow the French landing parties, the former to the southern, the latter to the northern attack. Precisely at 10 o'clock the signal was given for the ships to get into position, and the Cormorant, whose screw had been impatiently revolving for some minutes previously, went off at full speed like an arrow from the bow.

She had hardly steamed twice her own length when the southern forts opened a heavy fire upon her; disdaining a reply, her commander, Saumarez, stood gallantly on, and took up his position with the utmost deliberation and greatest precision. His conduct called forth a most glowing eulogy from the Admiral. When he did open fire it was with tremendous effect—bestowing one shot upon the southern forts in return for the attention they had honored him with, he concentrated his fire on the northern forts. Shot, shell and grape rained in upon them, and before his French supports had got into position he had very nearly succeeded in silencing their fire. Meantime the Nimrod, whose movements had been somewhat thrown out by the French gunboats not coming up to time, received the concentrated fire of the southern forts, which Captain Dew returned with interest. Fortunately, although the Chinamen stuck to their guns with considerable pertinacity, they were so badly aimed as to do very little damage. Notwithstanding that the Nimrod, Avalanche and Dragonne were pretty hotly engaged for an hour, the former only lost one killed and three wounded; four shot struck her hull. I have not heard the loss of any of the French force engaged, beyond the fact that four officers were killed. A little before eleven o'clock the Admirals passed, followed by the fleet of gunboats. In the fire to which they were exposed Mr. Prickett, second master of the Opossum, was severely wounded by a round shot which had passed over the Nimrod.

The landing on the north side took place about eleven, in a few minutes more the allied flags were floating over the forts, and our marines and blue jackets were in full cry upon a large camp of infantry and cavalry about a mile distant. This is the first time in our experience of Chinese warfare that our blue jackets have had an opportunity of dispersing large bodies of cavalry. It is a species of excitement they particularly appreciate. At a quarter past 11 the landing party on the south side burst upon the astonished gaze of the Chinamen, who precipitately evacuated the batteries and fled across the arid plain in rear of the forts, all of which were rapidly occupied by our men, while large parties of skirmishers followed up and harassed the retreating masses. As the river at this point forms a peninsula, upon which the forts are situate, the Opossum, Bustard and Staunch were sent round to meet the enemy on the other side. They experienced a temporary check, however, from a battery of heavy guns, placed at the angle of the river on the north side, which gave them a warm reception as they approached, killing two and wounding three men on board the Bustard. This battery was speedily silenced, and the men of the Pique and the Furious, who had been clearing out the camp not far distant, came up just in time to take possession of it. Other gunboats coming up in support they all pressed on till they reached the opposite end of the base line of the peninsula. It was found, however, that the Chinamen had made good their escape, and the inhabitants of the large village which is situated here gazed wonderingly at the "fire ships," confident apparently that the barbarians would not mistake them for soldiers. A line of deserted junks moored right across the river at this point, formed a very good defence for our advanced position, and the whole peninsula being now in our possession the day's work was considered complete.

We may trust that this blow will have been sufficiently serious to bring the Chinese government to its senses. It had evidently been occupied during the last five weeks in concentrating here warlike resources. Large bodies of troops had been sent down from Pekin, and the batteries had been improved and strengthened by guns from neighboring towns. So exaggerated was the estimate formed of their own powers of resistance that the Chinese did not hesitate to open the first fire upon us, and it took us upwards of an hour thoroughly to undeceive them upon this point. The fact that the batteries were so easily taken after so many weeks' preparation only shows how simple it would have been in the first instance to seize them. If the impression produced, however, is more effectual in consequence, the delay is not to be regretted.

We have to deplore a melancholy accident which took place in the centre fort after it was in our possession. Some French engaged in the work of demolition had imprudently set fire to some gabions in the immediate vicinity, a spark was blown into a magazine, which had not been observed, and a crowd of bystanders were blown up. Some were killed on the spot, and others frightfully wounded. The accurate returns have not yet come in, but 36 is the estimate I have generally heard given. Our entire loss has been comparatively trifling. We have captured about 150 brass guns, most of them of enormous calibre, exquisite workmanship, and not above two years old, and we have had five men killed and fifteen wounded. Of these five, one was shot by accident and one blown up. The Chinese loss has not been so great as might have been expected, and is not supposed to have exceeded 100.

It is generally believed that this success will be followed by an immediate move towards Tien-tsin, in which direction the Plenipotentiaries will proceed until they meet with an Imperial Commissioner properly qualified to treat with them.

Prof. Maury attributes the success of the laying of the cable to the speed (about 6½ miles per hour) of the vessels. He quotes, also, a letter which he wrote some time since, recommending from July 20th to August 10th as the best time to look for fair weather.

Another Cure for Consumption.

The French physicians are at present much interested in a new treatment for consumption introduced by Dr. J. F. Churchill, an American physician now in Paris.

Dr. Churchill's theory for consumption is that it is owing to an undue waste or an insufficent supply of phosphorus in the system. To supply this want he administers the hypophosphates of lime and soda, in doses of from five to twenty grains daily, in a small quantity of sweetened water. In a paper read before the Academy of Medicine at Paris, he gave an account of forty-one cases treated in this way with success. He insists that the cure of consumption, in the second and third stages, (at a period, consequently, when there can be no doubt as to the nature of the disease,) can be obtained in all cases by this treatment, except when the existing lesion of the lungs is of itself sufficient to produce death.

He also says that these substance have not only a curative effect, but will, if used wherever there exists a suspicion of the disease, prevent its development, and thus act as a preservative with regard to consumption, just as vaccination does in regard to small pox. It is already extensively used throughout the whole Continent, and favorable results have already been attained in France. Germany, Italy and Spain, as well as St. Petersburg and Constantinople. In consequence of Dr. Churchill's discovery, the manufacture of hypophosphates in Paris has already attained a considerable importance, whereas before they was seldom applied to use and were only to be found as chemical specimens in the laboratory.

General Intelligence.

A QUARREL OF AUTHORS.—Mr. W. M. Thackeray and Mr. Edmund Yates are, or were both members of the Garrick Club in London. Mr. Yates, having thus learned to know Mr. Thackeray, wrote in the Town Talk, a weekly paper of London, an article on that gentleman, which contained the following description of him:

"Mr. Thackeray is 46 years old, though from the silvery whiteness of his hair he appears somewhat older. He is very tall standing upward of six feet two inches, and as he walks erect his hight makes him conspicuous in every assembly, his face is bloodless, and not particularly expressive, but remarkable for the fracture of the bridge of the nose, the result of an accident in youth. He wears a small gray whisker, but otherwise is clean shaven. No one meeting him could fail to recognize in him a gentleman; his bearing is cold and uninviting, his style of conversation either openly cynical or affectedly good-natured and benevolent; his bonhomie is forced, his wit biting, his pride easily touched—but his appearance is invariably that of the cool, suave, well bred gentleman, who, whatever may be rankling within, suffers no surface display of his emotion."

Mr. Thackeray, learning who was the author of this piece of portraiture, wrote Mr. Yates a sharp letter, demanding an apology. Mr. Yates said he was sorry, but couln't apologize under such a letter. Mr. Thackeray appealed to the Governing Committee of the club, among whom Mr. Dickens condemned the course of Mr. Thackeray; finally, however, after an animated discussion, the Committee voted to request Mr. Yates to resign. Whether he has done this we are not informed.

A MAMMOTH MAN.—A fatter man than Sir John has recently died in upper Georgia. The Savanah News says:

One of our city physicians has handed us the following extract from a letter written to him from a professional brother in the upper country, describing a somewhat singular case, we believe, of rare occurrence in medical practice:

"I must put in a slip to give you an instance of death from the rapid accumulation of fat. We had a young man residing 18 miles from this place, who was one of the miracles of nature. At the age of 22 years, he weighed 565 lbs: he continued gradually to increase in flesh until he reached over 600 lbs. He was able to get about with tolerable ease to himself, and attended to his planting interest. Some weeks ago he commenced increasing in flesh very rapidly, and gained 1½ lbs. per day; then it was found he gained a little over 2 lbs. per day. Last week he died suddenly in his chaise, I think from the accumulation of fat around the heart. Three days prior to his death, he weighed 646 lbs., and had he been weighed the day of his death no doubt he would have gone over 650 lbs. I have often seen him, and visited his family a few months ago, professionally."

A ROMANCE SQUASHED.—The Mankato Independent, of the 17th, says:

"One of the Sioux chiefs recently returned from Washington, brought back with him an addition to his household, in the shape of a white wife—a good looking, fashionable dressed young woman, about twenty years of age. From one of our citizens who went up to the agency on the same boat, we learn that she manifested considerable disappointment at the aspect of affairs on her arrival. The romance of the thing was pretty effectually "squashed" by the appearance of the inmates and surroundings of her new home. She declined all offers of assistance from the officers of the boat, who were anxious to return her to civilized society, protesting her ability and intention to attend to her own business, and advising them to do likewise. They left her in an eight by ten mud hovel, in company with a couple of Dacotah matrons, who also, we believe, had claims upon the affections of the chief in question.

ALTERATION OF THE ENGLISH PRAYER BOOK.—The English House of Lords have, upon a motion by the Earl of Stanhope, voted an address to the Queen, praying Her Majesty to reconsider the proclamation ordering the solemn commemoration of the deliverance of James I., the martyrdom of Charles I., the restoration of Charles II., and the landing of William III. There was scarcely any opposition to the proposal. The Archbishop of Canterbury, with the Bishop of London and Oxford, took the same view of the matter as the peers temporal. Only the Bishops of Bangor and St. Asaph's murmured an objection. "There is virtually," says a London paper, "a unanimous desire to expunge from the State liturgy the prayers and thanksgivings which may at one time have represented a really national and religious sentiment, but which soon became nothing better than memorials of a sectarian and polititcal dominancy which now has passed away, leaving behind neither kind of significance."

A QUEER REGATTA.—The rage for regattas has reached the city convicts and paupers, and on Saturday last a grand boat race came off at Blackwell's Island under the auspices of some of the Alms House Govenors, in which delegates from various institutions on the "tight little island" in East River participated. The boats entered for the race were the six oared barges used for conveying passengers between the institutions and this city, and were manned as follows: The Alms boat by vagrants; the Work House boat by paupers; the Penitentiary boat by thieves, and the Lunatic Asylum boat by lunatics. The entry for each boat was $5, making a total of $20. The course was around Blackwell's Iland of about four miles, and the race was witnessed with great interest by the Govenors and their friends, and a large number of spectators on the New York side. The Work House barge came in ahead.—N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

CHANGE OF FAITH.—We learn that there has been within a few months past quite a stampede in the German Methodist Churches of New Orleans and vicinity toward Swedenborgianism. One of the most popular of the German preachers, the Rev. J. M. Hofer, has gone over to the mystic faith of the great Swedish philosopher, and taken with him not a few of his brethren and friends, and now holds forth to them at private houses on the Sabbath. Metaphysical speculations appear to have about them an indescrible charm for the German mind, and if they have about them air of the mystical and marvelous, the attractions seemed to be increased.—N. O. Commercial Bulletin.

THE YANKEES IN PALESTINE.—A letter from Jerusalem announces the expectation of a caravan of 150 Americans from Boston, direct to Jaffa, by special steamer. They come armed with revolvers instead of scollop shells and it is well for them, as a certain Abougosh is giving trouble south-west of the Holy City, and also a certain Faquir, against whom the Governor of Jerusalem has lately marched with two field pieces and 400 Bashi-Bazouks. His whereabouts was Gaza, the gates of which the Pacha did not break open or carry off, as there were none, but he captured the Turkish saint, and keeps him a hostage for public tranquillity.

A NEW LANGUAGE.—Professor Scherb, in a lecture introductory to a course on the "Poetry of the Bible," lately quoted the following from the sermon of a monk, preached in Germany just at the commencement of the Reformation:

"They have lately got up a new language, which they call Greek, and which is crammed full of heresies. I counsel you to beware of it and especially of a book in that language called the New Testament. This is full of thorns and adders. They have also invented another new language, called Hebrew. All who read this will certainly become Jews."

THE ORIGIN OF SORROWS.—We fancy that at our afflictions are sent us directly from above; sometimes we think it in piety and contrition, but oftener in moroseness and discontent. It would be well, however, if we attempted to trace the cause of them; we should probably find their origin in some region of the heart which we never had well explored, or in which we had secretly deposited our worst indulgences. The clouds that intercept the heavens from us come not from the heavens, but from the earth.

CAUTION TO VISITORS TO NEWPORT.—Gentleman, when creditors are troublesome, will find it to their advantage to leave Newport out of their summer tours. The laws of Rhode Island allow the imprisonment of strangers for debt, and one summer bird has been caught and compelled to sojourn two weeks in Newport jail.

EYE AND EAR. DR. UNDERWOOD, FORMERLY OF THE EYE AND EAR Infirmary of Louisville, Ky., and more recently Physician and Surgeon to the Eye and Ear Infirmary, Columbus, Ohio, and author of a "New System of Treating Diseases of the Eye and Ear without the use of the Knife," would announce that he has permanently established an Infirmary in the city of Chicago, Illinois, at SEVENTY-THREE South Clark street, where he will remain in order to afford to those afflicted with diseases of the Eye and Ear, an opportunity of being treated by a system which is known to be perfectly safe, and has never been known to fail in effecting permanent cures, especially in all cases of Opthalmia (or inflammation of the eye) whether acute or chronic; whether catarrhal, purulent, scrofulous, or rheumatic. It will also remove all Opacities of the Cornea, whether of a nebulous or albuginous character, or any other extraneous substance, from the sight of the Eye. The new mode of treatment has never failed of curing Pterygium, Staphyloma and Amaurosis, and is also successful in removing Cataract from the Eye, whether Capsular or Lenticular, in a great majority of cases, without the use of the knife or needle.

He has been equally successful in his treatment of Diseases of the Ear, with his new system. For skill and success in his profession, the Doctor directs those interested to the following well known citizens of Columbus, Ohio: Capt. E. M. Lilley, Judge Bates, Capt. Wm. Willis, Rev. Dr. Hulburd, of the Presbyterian Church, and the following members of the Ohio Legislature: Hon. Dr. Flower of Perry county, Hon. Patrick Thompson of Coshocton county, Hon. Mr. Johnson of Hocking, Hon. J. A. Bell of Medina county; all of whom are personally acquainted with the Doctor's success.

No charge made for an examination and opinion. Patients at a distance, can have medicines and directions sent to them by giving a minute description of their cases.

LIGHT!! MORE LIGHT!! EVERY FAMILY THEIR OWN GAS MAKER. NO CHEMICAL HUMBUG. THE UNDERSIGNED HAVE MADE EXtensive arrangements for supplying any store, public house or private dwelling in the city or suburbs with J. W. Smith's New Patent Gas Generator.

By means of this exceedingly simple, cheap and convenient arrangement, any family can have, at a cost not to exceed one-fourth the cost of the city gas, a gas far more brilliant and white, and not at all offensive. This is none of the chemical humbugs with which the country is flooded, but genuine Gas, manufactured by means of a simple arrangement (lately patented) made to attach to any gas pipe, to be used with ordinary gas burners.

THINGS YOU WILL AVOID BY USING THIS GAS.

1st—Three-fourths of all expense.
2d—All offensive odor.
3d—Uncertain and poor light.
4th—The annoyance of defective metres, monthly gas bills, advance deposits, &c.

The following are among the many certificates we have from those using this Gas:

Washington City, D. C., July 1st, 1858. This may certify that we have been using John W. Smith's Portable Gas Generator, to light our store, which has burners, using from 5 to 6 feet per hour to each burner, making the gas every night as we want it. We find this new invention to be a valuable one. For economy, safety and brilliancy it by far exceeds every other light now extant. Our gas bill from the Gas Company in this city averaged $26 per month, when this (Smith's) Gas has not cost over $4 or $5 per month, and producing a much stronger and purer light. Our experience with it since the 1st of February last warrants us in recommending it to all that may wish a cheap and safe light. E. TUCKER & BRO., Pennsylvania avenue.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.—The undersigned are now using in their store, 74 State street one of J. W. Smith's Portable Gas Generators, and from experiments carefully made by us we are well satisfied that the cost of gas made by this apparatus will not exceed one-fourth the expense of the city gas for an equal number of burners, the capacity of the burners being equal. The light is also whiter and more brilliant, and without offensive odor. The apparatus is exceedingly simple and cheap, and the process of making the gas within the comprehension of the most ordinary mind, all of which facts we shall be happy to demonstrate to any person who may wish, by their calling at our store, 74 State street, at any time between eight o'clock A. M. and nine o'clock P. M. BEECHER & POWELL. Chicago, July 15th, 1858. Office for the sale of Rights of Dwellings or Counties at room No. 3, up-stairs, 76 Dearborn street. BLAKE & CO.

Of which the Springfield (Mass.) "Republican" truly says: "Few of the late inventions of the day can claim a success like this already celebrated article of household economy. It is constructed in a neat, simple, thoroughly scientific manner, and its advantages are that it makes deliciously fragrant coffee, even if used by unskillful hands, and retains all the aroma of the berry, that usually escapes in steam when cooked in the old-fashioned way. The draught which it makes is nectar compared with that of old-time coffee pots."

Commercial and Money Matters.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, Aug. 11.

MONEY.—Eastern Exchange, 1¼ per cent. premium. Discounts easy at bankers' rates. Currency abundant.

COMMERCIAL.—The Niagara, with Liverpool dates to the 31st, was telegraphed this evening. Breadstuffs are reported dull. Flour was 6d lower. Wheat quiet yet firm—Red Western being quoted at 5s 5d@6s 2d. Corn was dull and nominal at 33s@34s for Yellow, and 32s 6d@33s for White. The weather had been favorable for harvesting.

There was an average attendance on 'Change to-day, notwithstanding the heavy rains which prevailed at the hour of meeting. There was a good demand for Flour to-day, with very little offering, and sales were made at an advance of 50@60c.

Wheat was active and excited, with a strong speculative feeling—advancing 3@4c per bushel. About 130,000 bushels changed hands, at 78@82c for old receipts of No. 2 Spring in store, and 81@83½c in store for new receipts of same grade; No. 1, 83@84c for old receipts in store; 95c for No. 2 Red Winter in store; $1.10 for No. 1 White Winter in store; and 84@87c afloat for River Spring Wheat. Red and White Winter are scarce and in active demand.

The Corn market was dull, and all qualities declined 1c on yesterday's figures. About 37,000 bushels changed hands at 69½@70c for Canal afloat; 68c for new receipts No. 1 in store; and 64c for new receipts of No. 2.

The Oats market was quiet but firm, with sales of over 12,000 bushels at 48@49c in store.

Rye and Barley are scarce and in good demand. Highwines rather lower. Hides firm. Wool quiet. Eggs plenty and lower.

Lake Freights remain dull. A vessel was chartered to take corn to Ogdensburgh at 6c.

THE BRITISH CORN TRADE.

[From the Mark Lane Express, July 26.]

The weather of the past week has been favorable to the completion of the hay harvest, and the commencement of the cutting of corn. Already a fair portion has been cut, and should it continue fine next week a large quantity will have fallen by the sickle. As those pieces which were laid have considerably improved, let us hope that no disaster will occur to blast the farmers' prospects or disappoint the nation. Accounts differ much as to the probable yield of wheat, but by universal consent the light gravelly soil have suffered by the excessive heat; and liberal use of guano in such localities will prove of little benefit. Spring corn, though amended by the recent falls, will be under an average—beans and peas considerably so. The genial rains have done immense good to potatoes, as well as turnips, and all the root crops; and in several places there is promise of a second crop of grass, or a good bite for cattle. The country markets have been moderately supplied, and the London decline of Monday has in part been followed, but some markets have resisted it.

Holders knowing that good wheat will be extensively required, have preferred to take the risk of the weather at present prices. By the admitted shortness of the stock of foreign, after such liberal supplies this year, we gather the fact of a greatly increased consumption, as, up to the end of June, we have received this year from foreign parts and the colonies no less than 3,432,739 quarters of wheat, including flour, calculating the latter at the rate of 56lbs to a bushel. This being at the rate of more than an average importation, after a large crop of our own, shows the rapid increase of population, and its requirements. In neighboring countries the abundant rains and actual commencement of harvest, have checked the upward movement of prices, but the general reports leave the impression that, throughout France, Belgium, Holland, Spain and Italy, they have been less favored in the wheat crop than here. In the Principalities of Moldavia and Wallachia there is a diminished bulk of grain. Russia, though late, is said to have a fair promise; but in America the last year's abundance is not expected.

The sales of Wheat noted last week were 91,222 qrs. at 45s. 8d., against 81,704 qrs. last season. The London averages were 49s 6d. on 2,814 qrs. The imports into the principal ports of Great Britain during the week ending 14th July, in Wheat and Flour, were 113,564 qrs.

Liverpool on Tuesday, was 1d to 2d per 70 lbs cheaper for fine Wheat, with a good demand, but interior was 2d. to 3d. per 70 lbs lower. Beans were 1s. per qr. up, but Oats, Barley and Peas were unaltered. Maize sold at 6d. to 9d. per qr. less money. On Friday there was a further decline of 1d. to 2d. per 70 lbs on Wheat. Flour also was the turn lower. Oats were scarcely so dear. Peas were 1s per qr. cheaper. Barley unaltered. Beans still in favor of sellers. Maize neglected, though offered at 6d. per qr. less. The tendency of all spring corn has been upward generally, especially Beans and Peas.

In Scotland the weather has been propitious with little change in the markets. Edinburgh, with moderate supplies, was somewhat lower for Wheat. At Glasgow the demand was but retail; Hamburg upland wheat bringing 48s, and Chicago spring 40s 6d per qr. Oats tended upwards, but other spring corn was without change.

The business in Ireland has been quiet, at much the same prices as previously paid. Dublin rates were rather in favor of buyers; a similar report came from Cork. At Waterford Oats sold better, but nothing else; and Maize gave way 6d to 9d per barrel.

THE CROPS.

MORRISON, Whiteside Co., Ill., Aug. 10, 1858.

Editors Press and Tribune:

New wheat has made its appearance in our market, and the samples thus far are much worse than we supposed. The berry is much shrunk, damp and sprouted, and we fear there will be but little good wheat shipped from this section of country this season. We have made diligent inquiry of the farmers in regard to the amount per acre that their wheat would yield. Some put it five bushels, more at seven, others at ten, and some say that portions of their Rio Grande will turn off twenty bushels to the acre. We have not yet seen any wheat that would weigh more than 52 pounds to the measured bushel, and some at 49 pounds. Many acres have been harvested that will not pay good wages for gathering, and considerable has not yet been cut. We know of one instance where a farmer had 50 acres that he did not cut at all; another who had 112 acres and cut only 20, and another who had 120 and cut 80. Thus we could mention scores of cases where it has been left standing, as it would not pay for cutting. Oats are a total failure as far as we can learn, and many farmers say the potatoes are rotting. Corn looks well, and must be a good crop if the frost holds off. Barley is good, but there was but little sown.

Respectfully yours, S. H. McCREA & Co.

PRINCETON, Bureau Co., Ill., Aug. 9, 1858.

Editors Press and Tribune:

Our crops are poor, except hay. Corn promises well where there are enough plants. But many fields are quite too much scattered to produce anything like a good yield. On the whole I do not think we shall have over half a crop of corn—perhaps one third of wheat, and not oats enough to replace the seed sowed last spring.

Yours truly, JOHN H. BRYANT.

CASS RIVER, Cass Co., Ind., Aug. 7, 1858.

Editors Press and Tribune:

I see, in your paper of the 5th, a statement of the crops in Lake County, which I think not quite correct. Wheat is not more than one-third of a crop; oats are almost an entire failure, not enough for seed next spring; and hundreds of acres of wheat not worth cutting. Threshing has commenced, and farmers are disappointed in the amount they expected when gathered and stacked. Yours, WM. H. SHEDD.

For the following letters on the crops, we are indebted to the Commercial Agency of Wm. Jones, Jr., & Co.:

OTTAWA, Lasalle Co., Ill., Aug. 9, 1858.

The crops in this vicinity are very poor; it is generally believed there will not be more than half a crop. Many pieces of wheat will not yield enough to pay the expense of harvesting, and much that has been cut was destroyed by the heavy rains. Corn is very backward, and, however favorable the remainder of the season may be, a full crop cannot be expected, as much that was planted has been destroyed by the rains in the spring. It is, however, growing finely at present, and should there be no early frosts there will not be an entire failure.

MANKATO, Blue Earth Co., Minn., Aug. 4, '58.

The season has been exceedingly wet, and crops, as a general thing, are not so good as usual; but, notwithstanding the wet weather, the crop of wheat looks pretty well. Early wheat is a fair crop, but late wheat will not be one half a crop. Oats and barley are only fair.

MASON CITY, Cerro Gordo Co., Iowa, July 31, '58.

The crops in this county look fine; never more flattering. The farmers are now harvesting their wheat.

RICHLAND CENTRE, Richland Co., Wis., August 5th, 1858.

We cannot give a very favorable account of the crops in this county. Wheat and Oats are much lighter than usual. Corn and hay bid fair to be good.

The following letters are from a Commercial Agency in Cincinnati, published in the Cincinnati Gazette of the 10th:

MARION COUNTY, IOWA.

Business has been worse recently, probably, than at any former period in Iowa. The prospect was that business might have revived had the crops of 1858 been good, but owing to the almost entire failure of crops, the probability is, that business will be worse during the coming season. At the best, there will not be over one-third of a crop.

WARREN COUNTY, IOWA.

The wheat crop in this section of country has failed entirely; but little wheat will be cut in this and adjoining counties. There is, however, a considerable quantity of old wheat still on hand, and sufficient for home consumption. The oat crop is very poor; but little will be cut. Potatoes look fine, and bid fair to yield a handsome return. Corn was never more promising, and if frost does not appear before it has matured, there will be, undoubtedly, a great surplus. Hay, we think, will be abundant, although many farmers have lost considerable by the heavy rains. Flour is worth $3; wheat 50c; corn 20c.

APPANOOSE COUNTY, IOWA.

Our wheat crop is almost an entire failure; we will not raise enough this year for home consumption—price about 90c per bushel. Oats about one third of a crop—very indifferent worth from 35 to 40c per bushel. The prospect for corn is very good; will be about half the amount raised last year. Owing to the extreme wetness of the season, only about one-half as much ground was planted as last year. Corn is worth at present 30 to 35c per bushel.

DECATUR COUNTY, IOWA.

The quantity of wheat and oats put in the ground last spring and fall, was nearly double that of any previous year. The crop of each is nearly a total failure, being destroyed by the rust and spot; but little of the crop was fit to be cut, and most of that which was out, being left in the fields in the shock, was greatly damaged by the heavy rains. Owing to the wet weather in the spring, the desired amount of corn was not planted, but that which was planted in time, looks well and promising. The probabilities are, that with an ordinary good season, we will have sufficient corn for all our own wants. We cannot ship corn at this distance from market, and if we have enough to fatten our hogs and cattle, and winter our stock, we are as well off as though we had twice the quantity. Our crop of grasses is very good.

WAPELLO CO., IOWA.

Wheat and oats are nearly a total failure. Corn might and did have a chance to come out, but the last wet weather makes it very bad. Wheat and oats in this county will not average one-fifth of a crop. Corn cannot exceed half a crop. Grass is plenty—there will be plenty of hay if the weather remains dry. This is the worse season we have had for crops since 1851. Merchants say they are going to buy but little; money cannot be had and goods cannot be sold except on credit; this merchants cannot do and pay their debts, and they conclude not to buy.

CLINTON CO., IOWA.

A portion of the wheat crop of the surrounding country is good. Some that was sown very early is hurt, but the surplus or amount of crop will be greater than any year preceding, as a greater number of acres have been sown. Prospects for business this fall are truly encouraging. The present population of Lyons is fully 4,000, Clinton 1,500, DeWitt about 1,500, and Fulton City 2,500. Quite a large amount of building is going forward in Lyons this season.

STEELE CO., MINN.

Notwithstanding the very wet season; the prospects for crops are very favorable. Unless we should have early frosts to injure the corn crop, it will be very large. The wheat harvest is about being commenced, and it is thought there will be a very fair crop, though some districts have suffered from the ravages of the fly. Oats will yield an excellent crop. There will be an abundance of hay at a moderate price. Root crops at present prospects will be abundant and cheap. The area in crop this season is probably four times that of any previous year in the county, and preparations are made for a large increase next year.

DACOTAH CO., MINN.

The harvest prospects in this county were never better. Oats are most abundant. Wheat is slightly injured by the rust, especially winter wheat; but we do not raise much of that in this State. We shall have a great crop of potatoes, unless the recent rains have made the ground too wet. This is the best country in the world for raising vegetables. The corn crop will not be large; what is growing looks finely and portends a big harvest.

DODGE CO., MINN.

Our county was much affected by the crisis, but we are recovering. Our crops are very fine and prospects are good, except the winter wheat crop, which is badly injured by the rust. Spring wheat looks well.

WOODFORD CO., ILL.

Prospects gloomy—the spring wheat is nearly a total failure. Oats are said to be about half the usual crop. We have about half a crop of winter wheat. The crop of hay is better than ever known. The prospect for corn is gloomy indeed. We have no fruit.

DES MOINES CO., IOWA.

Oats exceedingly light. Wheat a heavy crop, but greatly injured, and in many instances entirely destroyed by rust. Corn very late and not so much planted, but unless frost should be early the product would be good. Grass, a heavy crop, but had bad weather harvesting, which will still lessen the value of the hay and wheat crops.

KEOKUK CO., IOWA.

Crops are very bad—not more than half.

MACOUPIN CO., ILL.

The spring wheat and oats have proved an entire failure in consequence of rust. The fall wheat is not turning out very well.

Pure Milk! Pure Milk!

THE UNDERSIGNED IS RECEIVING daily, and offering for sale, PURE MILK from the dairies owned by the following named men in Elgin and vicinity, viz: J. Kimball, Dea. Luther Herrick, S. P. Burdick, P. H. Smith, N. Belard, General Ticknor, G. Kubs, D. Larkin, J. J. Cook, A. C. Baldwin, J. C. Adams, M. Sherman, H. Sherman, J. B. McLean, J. Salisbury; all of which dwell among the old citizens or residents of Elgin. These cows are kept up in their sheds; their cows are fed upon the best and most reliable farming grass; and grain and roots raised upon these farms, and kept at pasture in summer, and are perfectly healthy. We challenge investigation, and are willing to submit to examination at any time. Any one who will prove [illegible] TEN Dollars a quart for all the swill or slop milk we have ever sold. I. H. WANZER.

Chicago, June 17th, 1858.

We are well acquainted with the above named farmers, and know that their dairies are kept as well and healthy as any dairy in Illinois that we are acquainted with; and believe that the Wanzer would not, under any circumstances, be guilty of selling swill or slop milk. And we believe the Messrs. Wanzer & Co., who sell Milk from their dairies, sell nothing but such Milk as they receive from said dairies.

E. J. COLBY,
A. J. JOSLYN,
S. W. RAYMOND.

MR. I. H. WANZER: Yes, I am more than willing to add my testimony to the evidence of Elder Joslyn, and Colby, Esq. and Raymond, and others.

"Do I know those men who furnish the milk you sell? We were "squatters" side by side on what was then the "public domain," but what is now their farms, covered with cultivated grasses. I know that their cows live in clover, and retain that causatory appendage their city cousins kept in distilleries so commonly forego; that their dairy fixtures and appurtenances exhibit proof, that in their view cleanliness is considered a cardinal virtue; that the milk you have of them is "pure milk," "milky way"—sweet and pure.

"What am I willing to say to this community of yours? Why, that you are Kane county boys, raised in the rural district—Nature's noblemen—and that I believe you an onste of adulterating milk as any man in the city, or any other way. DAVID W. BREWSTER.

N. B. I hold myself responsible for no milk except my own. That can be found at wagons No. 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5, marked "Elgin Dairy, I. H. Wanzer." ISAAC H. WANZER, Office and Depot 204 S. Desplaines street.

The Atlantic Telegrap[illegible]

While most of the large cities of [illegible] are making elaborate preparation[illegible] brating in an appropriate manne[illegible] cess of the great telegraphic enterpr[illegible] gret to see that Chicago is m[illegible] movement in that direction. Journal d'Illinois.

The Editor of the French paper [illegible] "Journal d'Illinois," has remove[illegible] Chicago back to Kankakee. He anno[illegible] return in the following pleasant by[illegible] manner. The Journal is a staunch R[illegible] paper:

In announcing, a few days since, th[illegible] suspension of the publication of "L[illegible] d'Illinois," we did not promise to resum[illegible] in fact, we did not have the hope of [illegible] to do so. The roads are so bad now-a-[illegible] when one has the misfortune to fall, [illegible] difficult to get up again. However, he[illegible] again, after having fallen. May the [illegible] our readers keep us from a like accide[illegible]

As for ourselves, we shall be more p[illegible] future, we shall walk more circumsp[illegible] to make a leap of seventy miles, as we [illegible] Kankakee to Chicago, shall wait until [illegible] are surer and the times better.

We hope that in consideration of o[illegible] science and good intent, our subscribers [illegible] due the trouble that our suspension c[illegible] tion has caused them, and that they [illegible] turn their back upon us; let them hav[illegible] for the future. If our edifice gave w[illegible] because Chicago is built upon a sandy [illegible] at Kankakee we find a marble found[illegible] we have built upon it.

The tribulations through which [illegible] passed have not soured our temper [illegible] always be gay, laughing, good fellows, [illegible] Neither have we changed our princ[illegible] are still good Republicans, and we bel[illegible] Providence made negroes without tai[illegible] made them like white men. Hurrah [illegible] Soil and Lincoln; away with Douglas [illegible] driving!
